USD UPDATE ON NEW LEGISLATION

AMENDED RELEASE

The University of San Diego's Special Education Department is sponsoring a symposium update to discuss Public Law 94-142 and its implications for special educators, on Saturday, October 15th, from 9:30-11:30 A.M. in Salomon Lecture Hall, De Sales Hall.

The symposium is open to the public free of charge. Refreshments will be served. For more information call: Sister Genevieve Lane, Ph.D. 291-6480 X 264.

There will be five guest speakers from the California State Department of Education. Eunice W. Cox, Ed.D, consultant from the Implementation of Master Plan Activities Coordination Team, will give an overall informative presentation. Virginia Templeton, consultant for Educationally Handicapped Program and Leo D. Sandoval, Special Education consultant, will speak and answer questions in the area of the learning handicapped. Mrs. Beatrice Gore, consultant in Education of Physically Handicapped Children and Jack Hazekamp, Special Education consultant, will discuss the area of the severely handicapped.

The new legislation requires that all funded schools set up a plan for free appropriate public education for every handicapped child on an individual basis. Parents participate in the development of the plans with right of due process. Regular teachers as well as Special Education teachers will be affected by this legislation.
